

Tei Fu Essential Oils

Stock #1618-7 (0.15 fl. oz.)

Tei Fu Essential Oils is a special blend of oils claimed to be a family secret which dates back over 1,000 years. Tei Fu Essential Oils contains camphor, menthol, and wintergreen—known for their stimulating scents—in a base of safflower oil.

Tei Fu Essential Oils have numerous applications and have been considered by many to be an important ingredient in herbal first-aid kits. Tei Fu Essential Oils are recommended for topical application for arthritis pain, bites/stings, burns/scalds, carpal tunnel, colds, coughs, cuts/scratches, headache, itching, muscular pain, motion sickness, poison ivy & poison oak, poor circulation, sinus congestion, sprains, stiff neck, stuffy nose, toothache, and vomiting.

Tei Fu Essential Oils can also be used to stay alert and awake during long-distance driving or late-night work shifts.

Tei Fu Essential Oils contains camphor, menthol, wintergreen oil, a secret blend of other essential oils, and safflower oil.

Safflower oil contains proteins, vitamins, minerals, and essential fatty acids, and has long been used in China for relieving inflammation.
